Featuring February 7th ...

Carly and Mark are an exhilaratingly fresh folk-pop duo described as "sheer acoustic beauty" by indieheart.com 'Morning Light Praying', the lead track from their latest release 'New City Morning' was named best folk song of 2008 by Toronto Exclusive Magazine, included in the Toronto Star's coveted 'Anti-Hit List'. The group has also earned 3 Toronto Independent Music Award nominations including Best Song and Best Live Acoustic Group! Blending folk, jazz, pop, and blues, Carly and Mark create a sonic tapestry featuring Carly's striking vocals and Mark's consummate fingerstyle guitar.

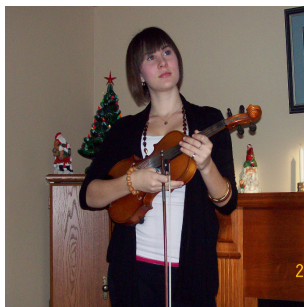

Heather Crawford & Michelle Willis: The Cloth Designers

This enthusiastic musical duo bring together their acoustic compositions to create a tapestry of rustic, heartfelt ballads and shout-choruses as they emphasize in one another an honesty and raw tenacity that allow the lyrical melodies and mellow harmonies to speak for themselves. With a pop sensibility taking cues from Melanie Doane and Eva Cassidy, a Joni-esque dedication to story telling, these two are bound to their roots and unwavering in capturing the folk-song nuances.
