Featuring on June 6th...

Originally from Toronto, Kent MacMillan now resides in the world class musical community of Guelph. Kent is a full-time musician who keeps busy both as a coveted private music teacher and as a gigging singer/songwriter/lead guitarist/bassist and pianist playing clubs around Ontario. As a guitarist/bassist he works with many Ontario artists such as Joe Forster, Mo' Kauffey, Kid Coma and Greg Denton. Kent is also the frontman for the popular Max Bent band and has written over 800 songs to date.

Kent is a Songwriters Showcase alumnus, having appeared twice before. He has and continues to be very generous with his time and talent, and is welcomed back with open arms!

Lorne Ryder is a Mississauga born singer-songwriter with many stories left to tell. Over the past 25 years Lorne's music has taken him across Ontario, Manitoba, Quebec as well as Nashville, Tennessee. He has earned 3 top-ten nominations for CCMA Keyboard Player of the Year, has been nominated for 2 Ontario Independent Music Awards and most recently was nominated for a Canadian Smooth Jazz Award.

Lorne first started out in the mid-eighties with his band "First and Last." Following 2 albums and 4 years on the road, he returned home and received a FACTOR Album Grant in 1998. After taking some time off to work with other bands, Lorne is now back in the studio working on the roots inspired follow up to "Ice Cream and Guns," as well as preparing his band for a busy summer festival season.
